

T. Harcourt & Company
Mandapraemium Insignis

Memorandum non claus. per quod tenno 1p 20<sup>o</sup> Rm, undno Reom

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is densely packed and appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a legal or administrative record. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and script. The paper shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.