

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Hebrew or a related Semitic language. The text is arranged in approximately 20 lines, with some lines appearing to be a separate section or continuation. The handwriting is dense and somewhat slanted. The text appears to be a historical or legal document, possibly a record of transactions or a list of names and titles. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language. The document is on aged, yellowed paper with some staining and wear, particularly at the edges.
